Wharncliffe Books., 2004. Softcover / Paperback. Condition: New. First edition. Softcover. A Foul Deeds Special. Series Editor: Brian Elliott. Something about the word 'unsolved' immediately catches the interest. It presents a mystery, something still asking questions or presenting us with a riddle. Unsolved murders have this quality of intrigue even more intensely, and in Yorkshire they have had their fair share. The author covers killings on the wild moors of Saddleworth to attacks in the dark alleyways of East Hull. Many of these terrible crimes took place in the expanding cities of the county in the Victorian age, and the historical period reveals that Yorkshire had its own 'Ripper' in Leeds, murders in some of its quieter valleys and brutal slayings in vulnerable corner shops or offices. The social history of the Broad Acres reveals a woeful catalogue of cruel murders, still to this day unsolved: tales with no closure, no finality and riddles to be answered. Here are some of the best of these 'cold cases' for readers to enjoy, consider and maybe search for clues. Illus., Sources, Bibliog. and Index. 176pp. 8vo. softcover. New.
