The Bipolar Doctor

By R T Kumar

Friesenpress, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Despite battling depression in his mid-teens, Rohit Kumar fulfilled his beloved parents dream of becoming a doctor in 1990. He was one of Canada s first hospitalists before setting up a highly successful private practice, and acquired specialized expertise in treating patients with chronic pain and those needing palliative care. Dr. Kumar s star began rising in both Canada and the United States. But, his increasingly erratic behaviour and mood swings began alienating his colleagues, wives and patients. He went on anti-depressants with mixed results. Ultimately, he was hospitalized for over 15 months, with multiple devastating suicide attempts and was finally diagnosed with bipolar disorder. The Bipolar Doctor is the graphic saga of this gifted doctor, first condemned and then shunned by his medical colleagues for having a mental health condition and then vilified by the media for abandoning his practice and patients. It is the sad chronicle of a medical system that would rather house than treat or counsel someone with a perfectly treatable mental health condition. It is ultimately the hopeful and heart-warming story of a...
