In the evening Mr. Elliot preached a third sermon, after which he invited all the impenitent, who were willing to submit their hearts immediately to God, to come forward that special prayer might be offered for them. Eighteen came and knelt down while four prayers were offered in their behalf. Two of the young men who united with the church last Sabbath, Gardiner Spring and Joseph Sandfbrd, have been scholars. They are very intelligent, active young men. There are several others of the same class who hope they love the Savior, and will probably come forward before long. It is peculiarly interesting to see those who have attended the school come out and take a decided stand on the Lord's side. Jfbttoajs. EXTRACTS FROM A LETTER OF MR. HALL, DATED AT LA POINTE. A notice of the departure of Mr. Tlall from Mackinaw, to proceed to his field of labor, was inserted at p. 634. of the last volume. Under date of Sept. 17th, he gives the following account of his Journey from Mackinaw to La Poinle. We left Mackinaw on the 5th of August, and arrived at this place on the 30th. We were very much favored on our passage with good weather, and made the journey in less time than is usual. The manner of travelling in this part of the country, as you know, is in open boats, when it is performed by water. Though we were out...
