Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Vine: A Volume From the Symbolist Press Paul paused at the door and gazed with rapture at the sun sinking behind the black woods; the deep, wine-coloured glow was reflected in his eyes as though hidden fires had leapt into flames of ecstasy. The brown, decaying scents of autumn filled the hushed air; a grey mist came creeping up the hillside, and a poignant sadness stole over him as he thought of the departed glories of summer. A faint wind sighed through the trees and some leaves pattered up the path. He turned to go in. The crescent moon was shimmering palely above the house; it seemed cold and sinister, and he shuddered involuntarily as he entered. He was glad to be inside the cosy lamp-lit drawing-room. A log fire was burning brightly, and the crackling wood filled the atmosphere with a faint, bitter-sweet aroma, with which mingled the fragrance of hot tea and toast. The red curtains drawn over the window enhanced the warmth of the room, and a pleasant languor came over...
