This Conference is an outgrowth of the Social Science Association, and was originally a gathering of the few members of state boards of charities which were in existence in the 70 s. Its membership now represents every variety of social service activity, voluntary and governmental, and every shade of religious and social opinion. Anyone interested in its objects is eligible for membership, and all members are entitled to its Bulletins and volumes of Proceedings. Many of the social reforms now well established in America were first advocated at this Conference, which exists to discuss social problems and disseminate information with regard to them but does not formulate platforms. The sessions of 1916 will be held...
