Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fireproof Construction for Houses and Other Buildings at Moderate Cost Concurrently with three large editions of this book which have been exhausted in the past two years, has developed a new and far reaching trend in residence construction. When, in 1908, the first edition was published, fireproof construction in residences of moderate cost amounted merely to a vague ideal. Previously unobtainable details of construction, cost, etc., with reference to residences having outside walls, partitions, floors, foundations and roofs of fireproof Hollow Tile, were then first made available, and this opened the way to their practical application by architects and contractors. Activity in the new form of residence building awakened at once, and made its influence felt throughout the East and spreading Westward. So satisfactory and superior did the results prove from the very first that never was the Hollow Tile house looked upon as a novelty, but attained without delay the highest recognition, not only as an advanced but as a thoroughly standardized practice. Without the high reputation gained by Hollow Tile in previous years for fireproofing the largest business and public structures, this rapid progress in Hollow Tile residence construction would, of course, have been impossible. It was not dealing in a material of unknown quantity and merit, but the application to a new use of the best proven of all fireproof materials. So that the present edition of this book, the 4th, marks the arrival of fireproof Hollow Tile at a stage where it is invariably considered in comparison with frame, brick, concrete, etc., where-ever well planned residences are contemplated. More and more it is coming to be preferred, as it is entitled...
