Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Revised and enhanced version of Book #8 in the Kiki Lowenstein Mystery Series featuring ace scrapbooker and crafter, Kiki Lowenstein, a young mom who loves family, friends, and furry creatures. The wedding should have been perfect. Ace scrapbooker Kiki Loewenstein certainly did her part to make everything just right for her mother-in-law Sheila s special day. But the discovery of a corpse can put a damper on any festivity. Especially when everyone-in-the-know knows the Bride wanted to shove her bouquet up the Dead Guy s snout. Suddenly Sheila s wedding portrait looks like a mug shot. Kiki must poke her pug nose into old secrets. Why did somebody want to cut a retired plastic surgeon out of the big picture? PRAISE: n I loved this book. Yes, it has a Murder but it also has lots of love and family. Wow and what a stunner on the murderer. I cannot wait to read the next book to find out what is going to happen next. Sharon Thrasher I usually get up at 4am each morning - I ended up staying up until 1am because I could not put this book down. I have not done something like that since reading the Harry Potter series. Caroline (Amazon Reviewer) This book is the eighth book in a series of Kiki Lowenstein mystery books and they keep getting better and better. I think that this book is the best one in the series and held my interest until the very end. And what an ending it was. I can t wait for the next book to be written and published. I highly recommend this book plus all of the others before it. Terrie Allison.
