Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Osric, a Missionary Tale: With the Garden, and Other Poems Osric, Beneath the pennon of a riven sail. The vessel drives, abandoned to the gale. Above, more darkly frowns the brow of night, Beneath, the waters glow more fiercely bright; Ploughing a track of mingled foam and fire, Fast flies the ship before the tempest's ire, While reeling to and fro the hapless crew Gaze on the wild abyss, and shudder at the view. Dread was the night: but oh! how doubly dread That scene, displayed through morning's dusky red. There, where her headlong course the vessel bends, One rugged line of frowning rocks ascend, In giant height, magnificently steep, They rear their towering forms above the deep; Wild and fantastic, bleak and black they rise, And pile their mighty masses to the skies: No friendly port that awful wall divides, But one impervious bulwark spurns the tides. To heap new horrors on the yawning grave, A bounding iceberg glitters on the wave: In wild dismay the mimic town they near, Where lofty spires and pinnacles appear; High and majestic gleams its snow-capped head, And wide beneath the main its fatal base is spread. Retiring at the glance of cheerful day. Far to the west the tempest rolls away, Yet, with faint hands and sinking hearts, the crew Resume their posts, and trim the ship anew, For still the frozen isle, with threatening sweep, Hangs on their path and thunders through the deep, Pursues with giant speed its rolling way, And seems to nod upon the destined prey.
