University Press of America, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetic Acts New Media advances the fields of literary and new media studies by clarifying boundaries between competing genres and media through the creation of a new artistic genre, media poetry. This aesthetic mode of expression/becoming seeks to transform mass culture (our codes of communication) by self-consciously acknowledging how textual, audio, and/or visual signs are constructed according to their simulation and not their representation. This study draws heavily upon literary media theories that intersect with Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of Sense as a simulated power of sensory transformations. Media poetry becomes a complex power of Sense by blending conventional mass-media codes with poetic simulations that provide alternative forms of creating meaning.
