Three Sister Dragons (Paperback)

By Matt Johnstone

Gray Goose Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .More than one hundred years passed since the Great Dragon War ended in tragedy. Madison the Magnificent, then king of the northern dragons, along with his beloved mate and their brave riders, perished during the conflict. So it was also for his entire army that protected the country from unspeakable evil. Since the fateful war ended, the country remains in hopelessness and chaos. The memory of their fearless protectors faded into legend. Against the backdrop of sorcery, treachery, and an army of pesky spies, the chance for freedom seems to be beyond reach. However, a prophecy lies within the legend, one foretelling that heroic dragons will once again appear, and a new Rider will emerge. Together, they will free the land of the pestilence that controls it. The adventure begins on a small farm in a seemingly unnoticed area in the center of the country. On the farm, nestled near a great forest not far from the northern mountains, an adventurous teenage boy hears a gentle voice in his head, beckoning him to travel high into the mountains. Although gentle, the...
