Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For the past 15 years, my wife and children have urged me to write about my life and experiences. Until recently, I resisted this suggestion, thinking that no one would be interested in my memoirs. However, my retirement in phases has given me more time to reflect on what I have seen and done in my 82 years - time to come up for air, so to speak. So in August of 2010, I put pen to paper and began writing. I am blessed to live in a country where a dirt-poor kid from a tenant farming family in Wisconsin can seize opportunities presented to achieve a top-notch education and become a successful physician. In my wildest childhood dreams, I wouldn't have imagined any of this would happen, nor would my parents. You are invited to travel with me in this life time journey. Dr. Herbert Sandmire obtained his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1953. He has been in practice in Green Bay as an obstetrician since 1959 until his retirement in May of 2010. He has delivered just under 11,000 babies. He is an emeritus clinical professor at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health but had his practice in Green Bay. More than 700 practicing physicians have had part of their training or post-graduate fellowship experience under his direction in Green Bay. Despite a busy practice he has found time to author 47 peer reviewed publications and has been the recipient of 19 prestigious awards. In December of 2010, by invitation, he presented a lecture to the French National College of Gynecologists and Obstetricians and that same...
