It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the summons and complaint herein be, and hereby is, dismissed as to all of the plaintiffs, saving and excepting such of the plaintiffs as are affected by the foregoing order and judgment, but as to such plaintiffs coming within Hill 1/. City Council of Abbeville the relief adjudged it is retained; further, that each and all of the restraining orders heretofore granted in this action be, and hereby are, revoked, vacated, and discharged, except as the same are made perpetual by the judgment herein; and it is further ordered that each of the parties hereto pay his or its own costs and disbursements. Frank B. Gary and Wm. N. Graydon, for appellants. M. P. De Bruhl, for respondent. TOWNSEND, J. This action was commenced by the plaintiff for himself and all others who would join as plaintiffs to enjoin the enforcement of a certain ordinance passed by the city council of Abbeville on the 13th of June, 1899, on the ground that it was illegal, null and void, and unconstitutional. After the original complaint had been served, and a temporary injunction issued, several parties came in and were made parties by order of court. An amended complaint was then served setting out the ordinance in question as originally passed. The defendant then served its answer, alleging that since the serving of the original complaint the ordinance in...
