Donnelley Corporation 326 EAST TWENTY-FIRST STREET CHICAGO ILLINOIS Ask us to mail a copy of (iThe New Standards In List Compilation It tells the whole story and gives you usable facts. into the market earlier and more heavily. In his first year, sales resulting from only two visits of a mediocre salesman ran over $25,000. Ten years later they were bumping the $200,000 mark. Then they slid down to one hundred sixty thousand--one hundred twenty thousand--ninety thousand. In the first two years of decline the manufacturer contented himself with re-routing the salesman so that he made four visits instead of three. In the final end of the slump--the skid--a sampling crew working among consumers spent sixteen weeks in that city--and still the skid continued. Expert motorists tell us of several ways to stop a skid. One is to turn the front wheels in the direction of the skid. Another insists that this is useless unless the brake is religiously left untouched while the gears are thrown into first. Some go further and insist upon a combination of going into first, followed by neutral and reverse. The cynics advise knocking on the steering wheel with bare knuckles and reviewing one's past good deeds--if any. The sales manager who viewed this debacle in the Central West was willing to do almost anything. Fortunately he did the right thing first. He relieved the salesman who had been in charge from any...
