The interrogative pronoun which or what, immediately followed by a noun, is translated into French by quel, and varies its writing agreeably to the gender and number of that noun; as, which or what man? quel homme? which or what men? quels hommes? which or what woman? quelle femme? which or what women? quelles femmes? 154. The interrogative relative pronoun quel is sometimes preceded by the definite article, to point out one out of many; as, which one will you have? lequel voulez-vous? m. which one will you have? laquelle voulez-vous? f. which ones will you have? lesquels voulez-vous? m. which ones will you have? lesquelles voulez-vous? /. The above pronouns may...
