Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From the INTRODUCTORY. When some great Christian kingdom has along its borders no rest from war, many young .citizens-the lion being still supreme in themI-can recognise but one service of the state. The watch upon the frontier, with its discipline of arms and its incessant energies of defense and attack, is to them at once the duty of a man and the meaning of citizenship and the ideal life. But the years bring a graver wisdom; the man who went out eagerly to the tented field-if he has retained the clear sense of devotion to the state, and has not become merely subdued to the trade of war-comes more and more to see that, great as is his present service to the state, there is another, quieter and greater. The ultimate strength of the state lies other where: in patient processes and structures of industry and commerce and legislation; in unnumbered school-rooms; in those ancient houses where learning is cherished for its own sake, and for their own sake the sciences are cultivated, and out of piety the memory of far-off benefactors is kept alive; above all, in the relations dear of the homes, with their charities of father, son, and brother, and their establishment in uprightness and integrity of the characters of those who presently are to do the world s work and shape the world s life; and in those companions of the homes, without which homes are scarcely homes at all, the parish churches that with sacraments and holy observances and the making of habitual prayer lie close to our mortal life from its beginning to its close: -parish churches where the vows of baptism are...
