America Through Time. Paperback. Condition: New. 360 pages. Dimensions: 9.8in. x 6.8in. x 0.3in. The Nevada They Knew is the story of a legendary friendship. Robert Caples (1908-1979) was Nevadas leading artist of the twentieth century, Walter Van Tilburg Clark (1909-1971) its leading novelist. Caples was a private, quiet man, extremely handsome, famously attractive to women, and five times married. Clark was gregarious, a compulsive talker, also handsome, but faithfully wed. Caples works range from portraits of divorces and risque cartoon maps of Reno during the heyday of its divorce mill, to charcoals of Nevada Indians, to profoundly spiritual landscapes - especially of Great Basin mountains. Clarks fame rests on The Ox-Bow Incident, but his finest novel is The City of Trembling Leaves, a celebration of youth based in part on the early years of his friendship with Caples in Nevada. Shafton goes back and forth between the novel and the mens biographies to honor their lives and works, and to understand the contrasting reasons Clark too soon stopped publishing fiction and Caples eventually stopped painting. This book is also a memoir, of Shaftons friendship with Caples, his attachment to Clarks novel City, and his connection to a land both men taught him to love. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
