Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from In Eastern Seas: Or the Commission of Iron Iron Duke, Flag-Ship in China, 1878-83 T O write something which shall please one s own friends is one thing; to undertake the task of pleasing anybody else is another; and, I take it, a far more difficult one. The writer of the following pages never sought to sail beyond the peaceful and well-marked area of the first, until induced-at the suggestions of his Shipmates, though against his better judgment - to venture on the dark and tempest-swept ocean of the second. The only originality claimed for the narrative is that of introducing such a manifestly inferior production to your notice. Shipmates, my little bark is frail; deal gently with her, and - let me ask it as a special favor - do not blow too fiercely on her untried sails. Much depends on the title of a book. Does it convey an adequate idea of the subject-matter? I would claim for mine at least that merit for is not every sea over which we have voyaged to the eastward of England?
