By Ramaswamy Thanu

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Society becomes sick when its members undertake activities harmful to many. There are several professions engaged in providing various services. In course of time each profession tolerates at least some members who adopt practices devoid of ethics and means foul to achieve their goals which often centre on greed to amass wealth. Some such members become eligible to be called professional cheats. These persons have a philosophy of cheating in built into their operations. In this book some professions where the trend has manifested are taken for illustration. These include medical, finance, engineering, business, labor, legal and public administration. Men want to satisfy their wants. Wants and desires multiply They are the indiscriminate offspring of the mind .When they are satisfied at the lowest level more and more desires and wants manifest and demand fulfillment. Later this becomes greed. The nature of greed and its growth are like pouring ghee into fire. The intensity becomes great. When resources are not available to satisfy greed, crooked methods are sought. Greed commands resources without..
