East/West Quartet

By Ping Chong

Theatre Communications Group Inc., U.S., United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. For nearly three decades, Ping Chong and his company have written and staged some of the most innovative and arresting examinations of the Other on stages in the U.S., Europe, and Asia. His work more than any other artist has explored the ways Asian cultures have intersected with contemporary American society and throughout history. This volume collects four of his masterworks created over the past decade, including: Deshima (1990), a documentary collage of the history of the West and Japan; Chinoiserie (1995), spans centuries, continents and cultures, where the mysterious East meets the mysterious West; After Sorrow (1997), explores the legacy of war in Vietnam; Pojagi (1999), a poetic documentary on Korea from the sixteenth century to today. The Washington Post has said these works are like poems in their simplicity and power to evoke . . . -carefully wrought and beautifully designed. Artfully and elegantly conceived, rich in metaphor, political yet deeply personal, the four works in The East-West Quartet tell us much about the pitfalls and ironies of history, the various contradictions, collisions and collusions within the East and...

Reviews

It is fantastic and great. This is for those who statte there was not a worth looking at. Its been written in an exceptionally easy way which is only soon after i finished reading this ebook through which in fact changed me, change the way i really believe.
