GAUT GURLEY

HardPress Publishing . Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 258 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in.Excerpt: . . . you know that we students were committing treason against the great laws of life which God has laid down for us No. Well, we are. Man was made for active life, and in the open air. But you, it seems, are not observing the theory about which you are so positive No, and dont intend to. To observe that, I must relinquish all thought of mounting the professional and political ladder, even half way to the mark I must and will reach. I have naturally a strong constitution, and I calculate it will last, with the rapid mounting I intend, till I reach the top round, and that is all that I care for. But I shall know, all the while, that I am going up like a rocket, whose height and brilliancy are only attained by the certain and rapid wasting of the substance that composes it. But the case is different with you, Carvil. You have a constitution yet to make, or your rocket will go out, before you can get high enough, in these days of jostling and severe competition, to warrant the attempt of mounting at all. Such was one of Wrights intuitive grasps at the truth, hid under the false notions of the times, or the artificial theories of books, which he was wasting his life to master, and often only mastering to despise. And I, being now earnestly in search of the best means of health, eagerly caught at his notion, which placed the matter in a light in which I had never before seriously viewed it, and, indeed, struck me with a force that soon brought me to a dead stand...
