Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Narrative of the Late Revivals of Religion, Within the Bounds of Geneva Presbytery The year past has been to the churches within our bounds, emphatically a year of the right hand of the Most High. In no year, since the settlement of our country, have we witnessed so many and such signal triumphs of the Redeemer's cause; or recorded so large an accession to the number of his professed followers, as the year which we are now to review. All our churches which have enjoyed the stated means of grace, have been visited with revivals during the past year. The first special indication of a work of grace, appeared in Geneva, early in the month of June, 1830; and the first subjects of it were members of the Female Seminary. At the close of the first week after the attention became general, eight or ten were rejoicing in hope, and an unusual seriousness pervaded the minds of all. A weekly meeting was appointed for personal conversation with those who were inquiring, another for those who were indulging a recent hope, and a season of prayer was observed at the same time by a small number of the church. Others, not connected with the Seminary, soon became interested in the work, and though it was not powerful nor general, it continued with various degrees of interest through the summer and fall - every week furnishing some new cases of hopeful conversion to God. Several seasons of prayer and religious conference were observed by the church, which were generally well attended, and apparently happy in their results, yet the members generally did not take that deep interest...
