Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Le Droit de Succession dans les Lois Barbares Quant au droit d ainesse nous avons constate ailleurs qu il n existait plus chez les Germains au temps de Tacite, si ce n est chez les Tencteres (l). L historien romain dit formelle ment qu en ligne directe descendante, tous les enfants heri tent Le mot liberi est general et comprend aussi bien les filles que les fils, et Tacite a meme soin de les qualifier d heri tiers siens pour montrer qu ils heritent d eux-memes en vertu de la Copropriete de famille Tel etait le droit commun des successions. Chez certains peuples seulement, on tenait compte de la nature des biens pour les attribuer a chacun des heri tiers, suivant ses aptitudes c est ce que Tacite releve pour les Tencteres qui, en outre, avaient conserve le droit d ainesse. A defaut de descendants Tacite fait venir les freres, puis les oncles paternels, puis les oncles maternels. Il existait donc dans la ligne collaterale une preference au profit des parents par les males vis-a - vis des parents par les femmes. En second lieu, Tacite ne parle pas des femmes dans la ligne collaterale; d ou l on a conclu qu elles etaient completement exclues par les males, mais.c est deja la une solution douteuse.
