RASC Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Electroshock therapy, child abuse and modern-day slavery. just another day in Christine s life. Take a heart-wrenching yet inspiring ride through one woman s incredible journey that is so compelling that you are simultaneously trying to look away and unable to stop yourself from reading on. Christine s father is a wealthy, tyrannical man renowned in the diamond business. At the age of just five, little Christine is cast aside into a boarding school where she is ridiculed for two embarrassing problems. She grows up in a never-ending circle of traumatic experiences both in her boarding school and at home. It culminates into a falling out between father and child that was never fully mended, leading her into a world of promiscuity and alcohol, eventually landing her in a violent marriage. Driven to the limits of despair and heartache, she creates a plan to escape her world of misery. Will her plan work? A story that asks: How do you find the strength, when you suffer almost unbearable abuse and are broken beyond repair, to pick up the pieces of a shattered life? This journey shows the tenacity of the human spirit and how the will to survive can often be hidden behind self-destructive tendencies. This beautifully written novel is an incredible inspiring true story about loss, abuse, survival and hope. Reviews: Honestly.I was really quite impressed. You have a from-the-heart tale that resonates. This novel is very well written, a real page turner. It s inspirational and it keeps you on the edge of your seat. Amanda Rogers, Proofreader This is powerful stuff. I like your frank, no excuses yet no shame writing style. It s rare to find a script that...
