WHEN WE WERE ROMANS

Picador, Great Britain, 2008. Trade Paperback Condition: New. Reprint. 297 pages. Multiple copies of this title available. Nine-year-old Lawrence is the man in his family, watching protectively over his mother and his wilful little sister Jemima. When the three of them suddenly move to Rome it seems at first to be a great adventure: a long drive through the night to the city of popes and emperors. But as his mother's behaviour becomes increasingly erratic, and the threat that had...
