Date :2008-6-1. If someone asked: Do you vanity it I believe most people are reluctant to admit their own vanity. In fact. many people have vanity. In life. people's vanity is reflected in many places. For example. we often have such people around. everything than to others. than the official position. more than the car. than the house. than to dress. the pomp than weddings and wedding and so on. Some people are not wealthy. but insist hat and no cattle. see other people buy a car. borrow money to buy their own; do a show and see other people get married. have their own debt is made more luxurious. the results of debt. bitter unspeakable. Some people get a little glory. to obtain a little success. it thinks is great. arrogance. Often get smart. to see who is rubbish. only he is a flower. What is more. there is not much skill. but arrogance sky. often hide their own weaknesses. strengths than others with their own weaknesses. and strive to rejection. ridicule. attack. distant. difficult people better than they are to show their how different. We write for the various manifestations of the vanity of this book. we hope that as a warning. so that each of us to better adapt to this colorful community. Contents: Chapter I stick to praise others do not become a victim of one. Do not seek the praise of others is a necessity (2) Do not deliberately imitate other people. you are the best 3 to choose their favorite. and not others like 4. not meet other people deny their own personality 5 firm own....
