

Juliette: A Sequel To The Making of A Madman

By Dennis A Nehamen

Golden Poppy Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 322 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.7in. Nobody would refer to her as a normal twenty-year old lady. The drumbeat playing in her head was one that few in the history of mankind had been able to hear. She wanted to be like every other kid her age and dreamed about it throughout her childhood. However, it was hopeless from the outset. So when she seduces a depressed young man being treated in a mental hospital, its no surprise. What is a bit shocking is that as a result of her non-therapeutic intervention, the suffering patient regains his zest to live. He was so enchanted by her magic, that when Juliette disappears he vows to spend until eternity, if necessary, to find her. Then, when she begins sending him cryptic messages, the chase begins. He loves Juliette and she, in turn, loves Murray. However, Juliette has a different concept of love and she has secrets. Discovering the mystery of this girl will take him on a journey thousands of miles from home. Along the way, he'll be teased and tormented into submission before having his sleeping spirit awakened by both humans and wild animals. This...
