Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Availability of Bomb-Making Information on the Internet: Hearing Before the Subcommittee on Terrorism, Technology, and Government Information of the Committee on the Judiciary; United States Senate One Hundred Fourth Congress; First Session on Examining the Implication of the Availability of Bomb Making Informa I think the Senate should not stand aside and not act when there is so much public concern, lest our inaction produce something else. I don't want to make any self-fulfilling prophecies, but I do think it is important to move ahead. My suggestion is embodied in a sense-of-the-Senate resolution, which is now pending in the Senate, to move ahead with that hearing on or before June 30, 1995. The subcommittee will have a fifth hearing on May 25 on the subject of the militia movement, which will conclude the hearings which we have outlined to be held in advance of Labor Day. Today's hearing is on the so-called mayhem manuals. I think this is a very, very important hearing because it poses on the cutting edge the issue of freedom of speech versus public protection. Shortly after the Oklahoma City bombing, a message was transmitted on the Internet which said: Are you interested in receiving information detailing the components and materials needed to construct a bomb identical to the one used in Oklahoma? The information specifically details the construction, deployment, and detonation of high-powered explosives. It also includes complete details of the bomb used in Oklahoma City, and how it was used and how it could have been better. The information will be provided to anyone who properly requests it and is provided solely for informative purposes. The...
