George Hall, in 1822, published the History of Chesterfield, with accounts of Chatsworth, Hardwick, and Bolsover; which having become scarce, the publisher of the present volume proposed to issue, in monthly numbers, a reprint of the work, with such additional matter as it might be in his power to obtain. On announcing his intention in a prospectus, he was induced, from the favourable manner in which the proposal was received, to extend the work much beyond what he had originally contemplated, and also to illustrate it with steel engravings, of a superior kind, - thus incurring a heavy responsibility, which could only be repaid by an extensive circulation. The result is now before the public; and it is for them to decide whether the work is deserving of their patronage. As far as his own exertions have been required, and called into action, the publisher can at least say that he has endeavoured to give every satisfaction in his power; and he is also gratified by the reflection, that the numbers, as they have successively appeared, have been received with approbation by his friends, and met with favourable notices from the gentlemen connected with the Metropolitan and Provincial Press; to whom he here presents his warmest thanks.
