It s time we take back our hijacked mainstream media, America. As Americans we have a right to be outraged by how the U.S. liberal mainstream media attempted to hack our 2016 presidential election. We let others hijack our principles, kidnap our values, and hostage our free speech. We permitted a slender few to tell us who we were to be, rather than honor who we are. We let them guilt us into a nightmare from which we have been freed. - Reader Comment on U.S. Liberal Media As an American citizen who veers more towards the side of conservative thinking, I have an inalienable right to feel disgusted by the liberal media s unwavering torpedoing of one political party s candidate, namely the Republican candidate. Doing so was, and is, an attack not just on freedom of speech and the 4th Estate s original nonpartisan watchdog role, but also on freedom of thought and on a free citizenry s fundamental, constitutional First Amendment rights. For tyranny to prevail, a government requires the co-operation of its handmaidens of mass media. A co-opted 4th Estate paves the way for despotism to flourish. Many of us Americans have felt for years that we were being manipulated and force-fed horse manure through our liberal mainstream media channels, most of which are corporate owned. This point is investigated and illustrated in detail in this book. Thanks largely to the then-candidate, now our President Trump, the 2016 election put this undeniable failing of our mainstream media under a microscope. The media got it wrong. The media failed to report the facts in a non-partisan manner. And most importantly, the media completely missed - or...
