Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book consists of fifty-two poems, aphorisms, essays, and presentations from a Catholic Renewal. Here you ll find one man s thoughts, perhaps representing others. Writing serves as a form of renewal. We share our humanity and spirituality. We become friends. Poetry succinctly expresses ideas instantiated into a form. In few words a snapshot appears, like waving a Polaroid Instant in the air and watching the image materialize. If pressed for time, read poetry. Arriving home, my son would ask, What You d Buy Me? Every commercial exacted, I need this -not I want this, but an existential necessity. Children grow up, ending their play-all-day phase. They leave us with a lot of memories. Life s experiences weave through these works, but What you d buy me? still makes me laugh. Although a bit childish, deep down we continue to hope someone bought us a gift. I also hope that you enjoy my work.
