

Violence of the Mountain Man

By William W. Johnstone, J. A. Johnstone

Kensington Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 171 x 105 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. THE GREATEST WESTERN WRITER OF THE 21ST CENTURY DEAL WITH THE DEVIL Smoke Jensen has seen the worst that men can do on a lawless frontier. But even the mountain man is not prepared for what happens while he's away from his home. An outlaw band strikes as two women are visiting at Smoke's ranch. Now, the women are gone and a ranch hand and his young daughter are dead. AND PAY THE PRICE IN BLOOD? Outlaw Reece Van Arndt is the mastermind behind the attack, and he thinks he has Smoke where he wants him: Van Arndt will give back the women if Smoke is willing to cut a deal? It's a ploy no sane man would ever attempt. One of the kidnapped women is desperately trying to give Smoke one last chance to find her and the killers. And when he does, no words, no money and no promises will be exchanged: only bullets and lives . . .
