Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 226 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. In the inner city, surviving is purely second nature. As in all of humanity, love and hate are constant contenders for the hearts of everyone who lives there. Abusing that love, cuts into the core of everyday living. Mias an artistic, battered teen who has been cut by the many people she loves over and over again. After numerous moves in the Foster Care System, Mia is placed with her Aunt who cares for her as little as her own mother did. When catastrophe strikes, she is once again placed with a new family that she is more than skeptical of. Who cuts into Mias heart and body next is a surprise to even her. Whats even more shocking is what finally stops the cutting, and allows her to feel the love she has always longed for. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
