Throughout her journey Grace learns that running can t solve her problems or heal her brokenness from her past, but she can run to the one who loves and knows her best. Grace s life changes when she falls in love with Jesus. Sherea Kelsey was born in Nashville, Tennessee. She graduated from Hunters Lane High School in 2004. Upon graduating high school Sherea enrolled at Tennessee State University with dreams of becoming a Nurse Practitioner. Sherea s collegiate path changed when she was accepted into a Respiratory Therapist Program. Sherea graduated from Tennessee State University in 2009 and began work in her field as a Registered Respiratory Therapist for six years. During that time she married her husband, Michael Kelsey, and shortly after became a mother of three children. Together Sherea and her husband grew stronger and stronger in their faith. In 2014, Sherea decided to step out on faith and quit her job to answer her call to be an author. It was not an easy road, but with the support of her husband, family, and friends and most importantly her faith in Jesus, she did it.
