[.]sisters, and that could not die like the echoes of human sorrow failing on earthly hills, but was as old as time and the pain in Charon s arms. Then the boat from the slow, grey river loomed up to the coast of Dis and the little, silent shade still shivering stepped ashore, and Charon turned the boat to go wearily back to the world. Then the little shadow spoke, that had been a man. I am the last, he said. No one had ever made Charon smile before, no one before had ever made him weep. THE DEATH OF PAN When travellers from London entered Arcady they lamented one to another the death of Pan. And anon they saw him lying stiff and still. Horned Pan was still and the dew was on his fur; he had not the look of a live animal. And then they said, It is true that Pan is dead. And, standing melancholy by that huge prone body, they looked for long at memorable Pan. And evening came and a small...
