Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln: An Address Delivered Before the Lincoln Memorial Meeting of the Muldraugh District Medical Association, Held at the Lincoln Farm, Near Hodgenville, Larue County, Ky;, On the 7th Day of September, 1916 Nolin River, a plain and simple couple, living in the then backwoods of Kentucky, and now the County of larue, had born unto them a male child who was destined to sway the hearts and lives of his countrymen and to hold in the hollow of his bony palms the destinies of millions of souls. Here upon this little sterile farm was born a human light, whose very shape and build and look were like the environmental aspects that surrounded him. Here on this sod he was to lay in his early life the foundation for that rugged strength and power of endurance that he strained in the dark hours of Chancellorville and that ever marked the career of this wonderful and unusual man. We speak a great deal of heredity and environment. While his parents came of ordinary good stock, still his father was coarse and illiterate, his mother probably tubercular and his environment so barren physically and intellectually, that we wonder as to whether or not the indomitable persistence, the perseverance and success that this man attained was in spite of heredity and environment. He had no chance in life, coming as he did, from the commonest clay and no opportunity for betterment save what he himself made, and it is this, and his upward struggle that has made this lowly, clumsy backwoodsman, the model and the inspiration for the struggling youth of our Nation. In Kentucky, later in Indiana and Illinois, he...
