University of Nebraska Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 221 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 4.9in. x 0.3in. For the residents of the Pine Ridge reservation in South Dakota, mainstream medical care is often supplemented or replaced by a host of traditional practices: the Sun Dance, the yuwipi sing, the heyoka ceremony, herbalism, the Sioux Religion, the peyotism of the Native American Church, and other medicines, or sources of healing. Thomas H. Lewis, a psychiatrist and medical anthropologist, describes those practices as he encountered them in the late 1960s and early 1970s. During many months he studied with leading practitioners. He describes the healers' techniques, personal histories and qualities, the problems addressed and results obtained and examines past as well as present practices. The result is an engrossing account that may profoundly affect the way readers view the dynamics of therapy for mind and body. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
