Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still. Jeremiah, xlvii. 6. Would to God that the people of this land were given the heart to see that God had whet his glittering sword; and in the proper spirit of humiliation to ask at his mouth the question of the Prophet, () thou sword of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Until they do, they shad have no other answer than that which was given to the Prophet: How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath lie appointed it. Jer. xlvii. 7. Aye, how...
