Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Arya Samaj and Politics: Substance of a Lecture Delivered by Munshi Ram on the Occasion of the 31st Anniversary of the Lahore Arya Samaj Ladies and Gentlemen, The subject on which I have been asked to address you this night is one which is fraught with deep and momentous issues. It is not without a sense of diffidence that I approach it. It was suggested to me that I might have done well to write out the speech for there was every probability of its being misreported or presented to the officials in a garbled and mutilated form. It does not, however, behove me to entertain dark and unworthy suspicions. And, after all, why should an Arya Samaj preacher be afraid of reporters, spies and informers. All that the Samaj does is open and above board. Its propaganda is carried on in broad day light. It has no circle of the initiated as distinguished from the uninitiated, no inner circle as distinguished from the outer circle. It holds no secret conclaves, no gatherings in the dark. Whatever it does is open to the public gaze. It is, therefore, without a feeling of trepidation and with confidence born of a consciousness of the righteousness of the cause to which all of us are wedded that I stand upon this platform to expound the position of the Arya Samaj with regard to current politics. The lecture, though delivered to you only on account of spatial and temporal limitations, to which a human-being is necessarily subject, is intended for a wider audience.
