

Hiring, Firing and Discipline for Employers (Paperback)

By Frank L Day

American Chamber of Commerce Resources, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Before a coach at a top-notch college football program recruits a quarterback, he clearly knows what physical and mental abilities the recruit should possess. He also must evaluate whether the recruit will fit the culture of the football program and that of the school. Before a hiring decision is made, a position description should be written, which clearly defines, in writing, exactly the type of individual who will meet the criteria of the job and the culture of the department and the company. Today's marketplace holds few constants. But there is one certainty - every company, no matter the size, possesses only one true advantage over its competition and that is its people. On any given day, the operations, manufacturing processes, products, and distribution methods, even well laid marketing campaigns can be copied with relative ease. But no amount of imitation can duplicate the workforce. How this unique resource is managed will determine the success or failure of an organization. Therefore, in order for a company to achieve a competitive advantage it must hire the right people. Once hired, an...
