Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sermons and Addresses, Vol. 3: Of His Eminence William Cardinal O connell, Archbishop of Boston The Most Reverend William H. O Connell, D. D., Coadjutor Archbishop of Boston, and recent Papal Envoy to the Emperor of Japan, received a magnificent welcome from the Catholic laity of the archdiocese and the citizens of Boston, regardless of creed, in Symphony Hall, on the evening of Wednesday, April 18, 1906. Further on, we give these speeches substantially as delivered. The Hon. Joseph O Neil, the presiding officer, was at his best, and made singularly happy characterization in introducing every one of the speakers. Hearty applause followed this letter from President Roosevelt previous to the introduction of Mr. Lyman, who represented the President: - My Dear Mr. O Neil, - May I through you extend to Archbishop O Connell, and to the guests from the great empire of Nippon who are to be present at the banquet given to Archbishop O Connell, my hearty good wishes and congratulations? Wishing to you and them and to all present at the...
