We need poetry like this. -Sally Evans, poet and Editor, Poetry Scotland. Thanks to an exhilarating directness and a worked-for simplicity of language, not to mention a nicely self-deprecating sense of humour on occasion, this is a book full of sharply drawn images, honest poignancy and frank admissions. -Poet-Journalist Tom Phillips. These poems have a humanity, a goodness, an almost other-worldliness about them. -Tony Lewis-Jones, Author of Anytime and nine other collections.
