Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Proceeding of the American Numismatic Society: For the Sixty-Second Annual Meeting and List of Officers and Members The sixty-second annual meeting of the American Numismatic Society was held at the Museum of the Society on January 10th, 1920. In the absence of President Newell, Mr. John Reilly, one of the Governors, presided. The meeting was called to order at 3.04 P. M. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The President's address, written previous to his departure for Europe, was read by Mr. Reilly. President Newell's Address. The year that has just elapsed may well be spoken of as the Medal year of our Society. Due to this country's ever-increasing interest in medallic art and to the many important historical events which have marked the year 1919, our Society has never before been so active in this great field of numismatics. Medals to commemorate the Peace Treaty of Versailles, the celebration of our National Day - the Fourth of July - by the most important nations of the world, the visit of the Prince of Wales to the United States, the Dedication of the Joan of Arc Park, have all been published by the Society. In addition, the J. Stanford Saltus Award Medal was finally completed and presented to its first recipient, Mr. Frazer, for his achievement in the field of Medallic Art. Nearly all the foremost medallists in America have now, one after the other, been called upon to assist in making our series of medals the finest that has ever been issued by any society in our country, and we may justly be proud of it. It...
