She suffered mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually during her journey in the valley. She found herself held captive, bound in shackles and handcuffs from her past. The valley overwhelmed her, but Jesus consumed and saved her. Traveling through the valley taught her self worth, patience, love, forgiveness, endurance, strength, humility and most of all, submission to the will and ways of God. The devil put defeat and death before her, but God told her that she will live and walk victoriously. Travel with her on her life s journey that leads to liberty, healing, deliverance and ministry.
