

Living Life with Autism The world through my eyes

By Marc William Pulver

Dog Ear Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 152 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Some facts and figures from the Autism Society, Bethesda, Maryland 1 percent of the population of children in the U. S. , ages 3-17, have an autism spectrum disorder. 1 to 1.5 million Americans live with an autism spectrum disorder. Fastest-growing developmental disability; 10 - 17 percent annual growth. 60 billion annual cost, of which 60 are in adult services. Living Life with Autism: the World Through My Eyes is the story of Marc William Pulver, a middle-aged man, who had to wait 50 years to learn he had a disorder that placed severe limitations on the way he would be able to live his life. He knew he was different but didn't know why and seeking an answer became an obsession with him. Miraculously this knowledge had the opposite effect one might expect. Instead of allowing himself to withdraw or slip into depression, he became energized. Relieved to know that there was a reason for why he was who he was, he desperately wanted to tell his life's story to the whole world because he felt it would give hope to others afflicted with...
