PARTNERS IN MINISTRY

Abingdon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Partners in Ministry is built upon the basic assumption that ministry is the fundamental vocation of all Christians and not simply clergy. Drawing on their extensive experience in leading the Partners in Ministry program, the authors provide direct, practical guidance on how the ministries of laity and clergy can complement and strengthen each other. The basic building block in their approach is the ministry team, in which ones status as clergy or laity does not matter, but ones sense of Gods call and gifts for ministry does. Ministry is the fundamental vocation of all Christians, and not simply clergy. Roy and Jackie Trueblood help this truth become an integral practice in a church ministry partnership. Key Benefits: Readers will find practical guidance on how the ministry of laity and clergy can complement and strengthen one another Helps congregations train and build ministry teams Helps readers understand differences between clergy and laity in terms of ministry functions rather than levels This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
