iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you searching for true love but skeptical of the ever-popular world of Internet dating? Fishing for Love on the Net demystifies the process of online dating and shows you that out of all the fish in the sea, there is one right for you. Myles Reed, Jr., uses a straight-talk style to explain why searching for love online requires more than just access to a computer and a catchy profile. He includes proven techniques supported by real stories to improve your chances of finding love. Reed discusses interesting statistics and ends each chapter with a short summary. You will learn: How to avoid common pitfalls Ways to connect to millions of other singles in cyberspace How to let go of previous experiences and preconceived notions Whether you have tried online dating before with little success, are eager to try it for the first time, or are just curious about this cultural phenomenon, Fishing for Love on the Net will open your eyes, give you hope, and help you find true love.
