2nd Tier Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Are you panicking about homeschooling your teen? Do you fear they ll miss the various activities associated with adolescence? Maybe you re afraid you ll close doors for them or they won t be well-prepared for adulthood? Are you afraid you re going to mess things up or make them weird? Breathe! These 75 young people are going to show you exactly what their lives looked like as homeschooled teenagers. And you ll be surprised at how they made friends, got along with family, and explored unique learning environments. They re eager to share the benefits and advantages they experienced through homeschooling. Their lives were (and are!) full, rich, and happy. Bring your doubts-reassurance is on its way! There is finally a big enough generation of grown-up homeschooled kids that it is possible to see patterns and grasp the diversity in their experiences. And who better to tell us about all that than the kids themselves! You ll find these young voices are fascinating and absorbing as they open a window for you to get a look into their unconventional lives. A great read. You ll find it hard to put down. Pam Sorooshian, Economics Professor, Homeschooling advocate A well-organized compilation of answers to questions about homeschooled teens ways of learning, social lives, family relationships, hobbies, college experiences, careers, and more. I recommend it highly to anyone who is homeschooling, considering homeschooling, or curious about it. Peter Gray, Research Professor of Psychology at Boston College and author of Free to Learn This thoughtful book, full of their opinions, experiences, and honest comments about home-based learning, is proof. You will be reassured, then inspired. And they will provide...
