This hearing is on the nomination of Edward Hirsch Levi of Illinois to be Attorney General vice William B. Saxbe. Notice of the hearing appeared in the Congressional Record on January 16, 1975. By blue slip, Senator Percy and Senator Stevenson approved the nomination. Senator Percy. Testimony Of Charles H. Percy, U. S. Senator From Illinois. Senator Percy. Mr. Chairman, I am very honored indeed to present to you a man that I think epitomizes the best and the brightest in America, and I not only feel that we should give consideration to Dr. Levi as next Attorney General but also take into account the extraordinary times in which the country is going and the remarkable opportunity he would have as a member of the President's Cabinet to present his thinking on a wide range of problems and opportunity and challenges that America faces today. I have had the opportunity of appearing before the Judiciary Committee many, many times to introduce individuals who have been nominated to serve at high levels of Government. Today I have a personal feeling of pleasure and pride in introducing Edward H....
