ROBINSON (PAPERBACK)

CB editions, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Seated at a café in some sunny street, watching the traffic slide by, the shoppers shopping, the joggers jogging, the beggars begging, the lovers loving, the bankers banking (but he can't actually see this), the walkers walking at the regular bipedular pace, give or take, which from high above or through the eyes of a child in the back of a car can seem infinitely sinister, this is Robinson's question: why are there not more crazy people running amok with machetes or second-hand Kalashnikovs? The footprint discovered by Robinson Crusoe on the shore of his island is that of a migrant. Crusoe is 'terrified' to the last degree? He builds a wall, and fortifies it with guns. Written following the 2016 referendum in which the UK voted to quit the European Union, Robinson is in part a record of the disfiguring influence of Defoe's novel on British education and culture. The latter-day Robinsons of Kafka, Céline, Patrick Keiller and others are surveyed, and Robinson himself as a fictional character 'more' 'a sort of ghost?' makes known his opinion of the author.
