Excerpt from Cinderella: And Other Stories The servants of the Hotel Salisbury, which is so called because it is situated on Broad way and conducted on the American plan by a man named Riggs, had agreed upon a date for their annual ball and volunteer concert, and had announced that it would eclipse every other annual ball in the history of the hotel. As the Hotel Salisbury had been only two years in existence, this was not an idle boast, and it had the effect of inducing many people to buy the tickets, which sold at a dollar apiece, and were good for one gent and a lady, and entitled the bearer to a hat-check without extra charge.
